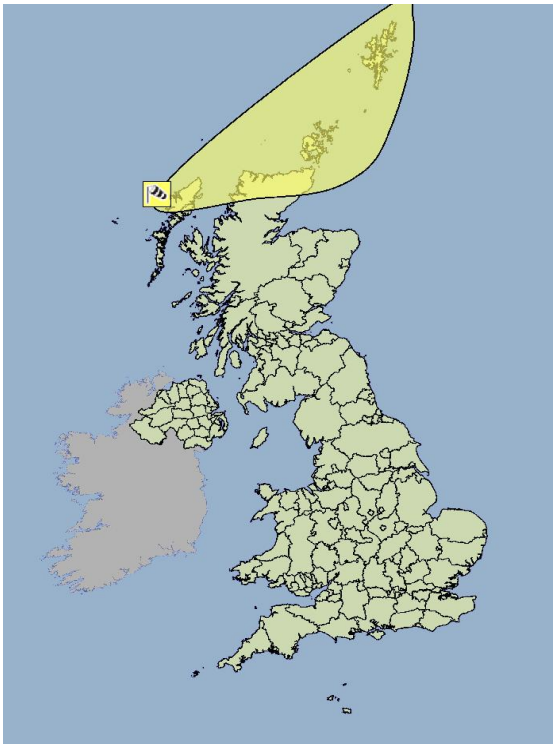
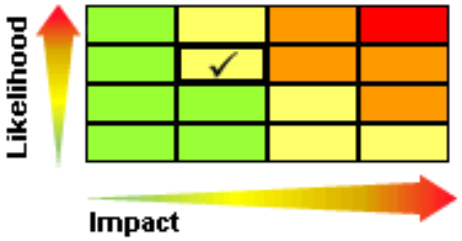
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Gusts of 60-70 mph are likely quite widely whilst over Orkney and southern Shetland gusts may come close to 80 mph in a few places. Peak winds will occur during Saturday evening and night. Winds will then ease from the south and west later in the night and early Sunday morning.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Wind

Valid from 16:00 on Sat, 27th Jan 2018 until 04:00 on Sun, 28th Jan 2018

A spell of very windy weather is likely, especially over the Northern Isles. Some delays to road, air and ferry transport are likely with some journeys taking longer. Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges are also likely, whilst some short term loss of power and other services is possible.
